SUES THE WABASH

MISS NONA DONAHUE WANTS $75 FOR LOSS OF TRUNK.

LIST OF THE CONTENTS

Supposition is That the Baggage Was Destroyed in Fire at Conception Junction.

Miss Nona Donahue brought suit Saturday against the Wabash railroad for the loss of wearing apparel and a trunk which was intrusted to the care of that railroad on August 31, 1913. The contents and the trunk are valued at $73.27, and the amount of the suit is for $75. The following is a list of the contents of the trunk and the value of the articles:

Six shirt waists, $9; 1 gown, $1.25; 1 union suit, 50c; 1 pair of drawers, 75c; 1 linen skirt, $2.50; 2 corset covers, $1; 2 petticoats, $2; 5 handkerchiefs, 50c; 4 dresses, $12; 1 pair hose, 25c; 1 serge coat, $15; 1 pair shoes, $3.50; 1 mirror, $1; 10 books, $8.25; 4 neckties, 92c; 1 pair rubbers, 85c; 2 towels, 50c; 1 messaline waist, $2.50; ribbon, $1; value of trunk, $10.

According to the petition the plaintiff became a passenger on the defendant's train at Maryville August 21, and delivered a trunk to their care, which said railroad was to carry safely to its destination, Conception Junction. Plaintiff further states that on September 1 she demanded of the defendant at their station at Conception Junction the said trunk and its contents, and that defendant refused, and that the same was wholly lost to plaintiff. Cook, Cummins & Dawson are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

The supposition is that the baggage was destroyed in the fire that consumed the depot at Conception Junction.

SUES FOR A DIVORCE.

Lillie E. Martin Brings One Against Henry Martin, and Also for Maintenance.

A divorce suit filed late Saturday afternoon was that of Lillie E. Martin vs. Henry H. Martin, a traveling salesman for the Free Light Acetylene Light company. The petition states that they were married in Nodaway county on April 18, 1907, and lived together until September 1, 1913. The petition alleges indignities, that the defendant would be angry and sullen for days and weeks and would be away from home during these times; that the defendant was of quarrelsome disposition and also abused plaintiff, and also ordered her to leave. The petition claims that the defendant is worth $5,000, and that the plaintiff is without means of support. A divorce is asked for and the care and custody of a minor child, Emily L. Martin, and also for support and maintenance. Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

ANOTHER DIVORCE SUIT.

Another divorce filed late Saturday night for the January term of circuit court was that of Minnie Anderson vs. David Anderson. The petition states that they were married on December 24, 1911, in Nodaway county and lived together until August 18, 1913, when the defendant left without reasonable cause and has since been away. A divorce is prayed for and also that her maiden name as Minnie Reece be restored to her.

Mrs. C. W. Smith of Barnard visited over Sunday with her sister.

The officers will be installed on Saturday.

CORN TO THE STATE SHOW.

A Box of It is Being Made Up to Be Sent to Columbia for the Show in January.

County Superintendent Oakerson is getting ready a box of white and yellow corn to be sent to Columbia for the state corn show to be held in January. It is figured that the county will win some of the prizes at this show.

The samples of corn were taken from the exhibits which were made at the recent corn show held at the Normal school some time ago. Some of the 109½-bushel corn raised by Hubert Corken, and the prize ear raised by Willie Oakerson will have places in the exhibit. The boys whose corn will go to Columbia are Hubert Corken, Burlington Junction; Dale Thompson, Elm Grove school; Grant Gates, Hickory Hill school, Arthur Gates, Hickory Hill school, and Lloyd O'Neely, Plate Valley school.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Brewer left Monday afternoon for St. Joseph, where they will visit for several days with Mrs. Brewer's parents.

A marriage license issued late Saturday afternoon was to Roy E. Wilson and Verdie E. Clemmons of Guilford.

SELECTS PETIT JURY.

Union—William Burks.
Washington—Millard Ellis.
White Cloud—Ed Crane and Frank Ware.

WARRANT OUT FOR RECTOR.

Barnard Man Charged With Carrying Concealed Weapons—Party Can't Be Found.

A warrant was issued Saturday on the information of Prosecuting Attorney George Pat Wright for the arrest of Todd Rector of Barnard. Up to Monday noon the authorities had not made the arrest, as that party could not be found, and his whereabouts are not known.

Rector pulled a gun on James Akley in the Henry Stallings store at Barnard, on last Friday evening, on arriving in that town after being away a few days. It is said that the cause of the trouble was some remark which it was claimed Akley made, but which he did not make. Rector went to the store at once and trouble followed. Rector slapping Akley's face and then pulling the gun. The gun was taken away from Rector.

BROTHERS IN FIGHT.

Jim, Will and Sam May of Pickering got into a fight Saturday afternoon at the harness shop of Sam May. It is said that the trouble started over Jim wanting to buy some leather for a set of harness and the other two brothers thought he did not need it. So trouble started at once, with the result that all three were arrested by Marshal J. R. Braniger of Pickering and arraigned before Mayor W. A. Burks. Will and Sam May paid their fines while Jim refused. He was brought to the county jail in Maryville by Marshal Braniger and after spending a night in that place concluded that it was best to pay it rather than to lay it out. So he paid it Sunday morning and he was released from jail.

BACKS AFFINITY

HOPKINS, MO., WIDOW TO AID IN DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS.

TO PAY THE ALIMONY

Mrs. Dora A. McMaster Signs Bond to That Effect if Rev. Stewart Obtains Divorce.

A dispatch from Clinton, Mo., says the following:

Willing to share her riches with a Baptist minister who loves her though he is wed to another woman, Mrs. Dora A. McMaster,a pretty widow of Hopkins, signed at Clinton a bond pledging the payment of $75 a month as alimony to Mrs. Nannie E. Stewart, in event the decree of divorce sued for by the unloved wife is granted and Rev. Clarence A. Stewart is set free from his matrimonial fetters.

Dr. Stewart formerly was pastor of the First Baptist church at Clinton, where he lived with his wife and their six children. About two years ago, however, members of the congregation took umbrage at his sermons and his resignation was asked and given. The minister took up evangelistic work. During a revival meeting the preacher met Mrs. McMaster.

Some months ago Dr. Stewart wrote to Clinton to his wife telling her he no longer loved her. His heart, he said, had gone out to another and he asked that Mrs. Stewart obtain a divorce.

When she filed the suit, as her husband had suggested, she demanded $75 a month as alimony for the support of herself and children.

Mrs. Stewart's attorneys were obdurate and as the court was withholding its decision, Mrs. McMaster agreed to sign with the minister the notes for the monthly payments. The necessary papers were drawn and sealed and now the court at its next sitting will grant the decree and the former Clinton pastor will be free to take new vows, but the wife he cast aside will be secure in the assurance that the future of herself and the little ones has been provided for.

Mrs. Dora A. McMaster, who agreed at Clinton to pay alimony to the wife of Rev. Clarence A. Stewart if he were freed from his matrimonial bonds, is well known at Hopkins and is wealthy. She left Hopkins about a week ago for a visit with a sister at Baldwin, Kan.
